This thread discusses the Content article: ECS N8800GTS-320MX – XP and Vista

As an Nvidia channel partner, ECS has jumped on the G80 core bandwagon with gusto. Today we review the ECS N8800GTS-320MX, ECS's answer to the midrange GPU battleground. Featuring a minimalist bundle isn't so bad with it's estimated sub $300 minimalist price. We examine it's performance stock, over clocked, and under a true worst case scenario. XP SP2 x86 vs. Vista x64 Ultimate.
